6. Board Comments – Trustee Hall shared that he recently subbed at the high school and when he asked the students how many had library cards, he was surprised that most did not have one.
7. Director's Report – Cheryl Heywood
 - a. Introduction of Olympia Library Manager Donna Feddern - Cheryl introduced Donna Feddern, Olympia Library Manager who has been onboard since June 3. Donna shared that she has a background in technology as well as public service, and is very happy to be in Olympia. She said she is lucky to work with 32 wonderful TRL staff as well as a supportive City staff and community. The Olympia Timberland Library serves around 1600 people a day and is always busy and full of activity.
 - b. Department Reports – Cheryl introduced Tim Mallory, Adult Service Coordinator who gave a short report on this year's Timberland Reads Together. Tim said that statistics were reported in his department report and he has received overwhelming response to the book, Short Night of the Shadow Catcher by Timothy Egan.

Cheryl highlighted a popular program - the Book It – Bushwick Singers a singing group who make up lyrics about popular books and sing about it. She shared that the December 14 performance at the Salkum Timberland Library was videotaped and will be uploaded to the TRL YouTube channel. Cheryl also congratulated President Varness on her recent 2013 community service award. Cheryl shared that she was able to attend the award ceremony and agrees that Corby is a very deserving recipient. The Board agreed, and offered President Varness their congratulations also. Cheryl reported that the Get the Card Campaign goal doubled this year and thanked TRL staff for their work.
