

Employee Experiences Advisor (Human Resources)

DEPARTMENT:	Human Resources
GRADE:	71
CLASS CODE:	HRADV
FLSA STATUS:	Exempt
UNION STATUS:	Non-Represented
DATE:	created Aug 2024, updated July 2025

Summary:

The Employee Experiences Advisor advises Human Resources on ways to improve the overall experience of staff working for TRL. This role is vital in creating a workplace where employees can thrive and find success in their chosen roles. The Employee Experiences Advisor builds relationships, listens, and provides leadership in the following areas:

- Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion
- Hiring and Onboarding
- Staff Development
- Staff Engagement and Satisfaction
- Staff Recognition
- Health and Wellness

The Employee Experiences Advisor will serve as a link between staff and Administration to foster an approachable environment and improve overall morale. The Advisor will research, recommend, advise, and implement changes to the target areas listed, and will conduct ongoing staff surveys in order to create action items for improved experiences for all.

Work Location: This is a Hybrid Remote position with the expectation for both in-office and remote work from home. The employer will outline specific days or times when employees are expected to be on-site, or travel throughout the five-county district to attend events, meetings, or programs. Expectations for communications and collaboration will be outlined in a Hybrid Remote Work Agreement. Required equipment or tools will be provided by the employer.

Reporting Relationships:

The Employee Experiences Advisor is a subject matter expert who may provide direction to staff and work as a bridge between departments, employees, and daily functions. This position is supervised and reports to the Operations Director as part of a service-oriented team.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities:

Class specifications are intended to provide a descriptive list illustrative of the range of duties performed by employees in the class. The omission of specific duties does not exclude them from the position if the work is similar, related or a logical assignment to the position.

1. Advise, listen, identify, research, recommend, and lead EDI initiatives. Research and advise on EDI initiatives such as recruitment and retention of a more diverse/bilingual staff, FTE adjustment ideas, ergonomic reviews, and recommendations to improve the overall daily work experience for employees.
2. Lead the Staff Development, Health and Wellness; Staff Recognition, and Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion programs.
3. Develop, coordinate, and implement training events including project management and contracting with trainers. May provide training to staff. Responsible for coordinating the all-staff days including agendas, activities presentations, and soliciting feedback. Acts as chair and facilitator for the TRL Training Work Group.
4. Collaborate with leadership to create and sustain a positive information channel to provide accurate information regarding organizational vision, change, or direction.
5. Oversees the employee onboarding experience. Sends out the Welcome/Offer letter, settles new employees into their roles, educates on TRL policies and procedures, assigns necessary trainings, and schedules check-ins with supervisor and employee to ensure new employees are successful.
6. Works closely with Staffing and Benefits Coordinator to support recruitment and hiring as needed.
7. Utilize the Human Resources information system (HRIS) and related software to view, document, and maintain personnel/recruitment records.
8. Administers TRL's continuous Service Awards program.
9. Ensure implementation and understanding of new and revised Human Resources policies, procedures, programs, and systems.
10. Review and research Collective Bargaining Agreements, personnel policies, and federal and state laws for Human Resources department and organizational implementation.
11. Assist in the development and implementation of Human Resources strategic planning and departmental goals and objectives. Serves on applicable committees as a representative of Human Resources.

12. Working closely with Administration, develops activities to improve employee morale by conducting research, best practices, and providing recommendations for implementation. May be assigned to lead or participate in the implementation.
13. Responsible for building and sustaining positive relationships with employees, Administration, Union, and stakeholders.
14. Collaborate with Safety Officer to monitor applicable safety standards, and escalate concerns regarding safety equipment, safety practices, and unsafe working conditions or hazards.

Core Skills and Qualities:

Employees are expected to demonstrate the following qualities at all times:

1. Demonstrate quality customer service.
2. Ability to successfully collaborate and communicate with many individuals at various levels within the organization.
3. Exhibit reliability and dependability. Demonstrate punctuality and regular and consistent attendance.
4. Demonstrate a positive attitude and flexibility.
5. Work well with others, show respect, contribute to the team.
6. Demonstrate TRL values of service, integrity, collaboration, and community focus.
7. Demonstrate leadership.
8. Establish and maintain effective working relationships with internal staff.
9. Committed to Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion.

Required Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities:

Employees are expected to perform or possess the following:

1. Demonstrate strong planning and/or project management skills.
2. High emotional intelligence with a commitment to working with a diverse staff and the ability to apply an equity and inclusion lens to internal processes and procedures.
3. Strong ability to work effectively in a team environment.
4. Ability to work with limited supervision and judge appropriately when to decide, when to seek guidance, and when to communicate decisions to others.
5. Ability to exercise sound judgement to comprehend and interpret laws and policies with the goal to become a subject matter expert in Human Resources practices/regulations.
6. Working knowledge of best practices for customer service and service to employees.
7. Skillful in fostering and maintaining a pleasant and productive working atmosphere.
8. Ability to learn the principles and practices of public Personnel administration.

Technology Requirements:

- Microsoft Office Suite skills (e.g., Outlook, Word, Teams, and SharePoint) to satisfactorily complete job responsibilities.
- Neogov HRIS skills preferred

Desired:

- Strong experience in customer service, project management, or working with people, teams is preferred.
- Effective communication style with the ability to have difficult/crucial conversations with Administration, supervisors, and staff.
- A willingness to learn new skills, processes, through training and shadowing.
- Effective time management skills, including the ability to multitask, manage multiple projects at the same time, and adapt to the changing priorities to meet Human Resources needs.
- Proven reliability and dependability.
- Demonstrated skill in fostering trust and responsiveness.
- People impact mindset.
- Knowledge in Equity, Diversity, Inclusion or the desire and passion for continuous improvement in employee relations.
- Strong research skills.

Education and Experience:

 Bachelor's degree OR any combination of education and experience which would provide the required knowledge and skills for successful performance of the job, will be considered.

Licenses, Certifications, and Special Requirements:

- A valid Washington State Driver's License.
- Must pass and maintain a criminal background check (per RCW 43.43).

Physical and Environmental Conditions:

- Work is performed in a busy service-oriented office with frequent interruptions and under the stress of continual pressure to meet deadlines and handle competing priorities Subject to sitting, standing, walking, bending, reaching and occasionally lifting objects up to 40 pounds.
- Occasional travel is required to attend meetings at other sites and locations, or to participate in work-related assignments.
- May be exposed to potentially angry and/or unreceptive staff or members of the public.

The above job description is not intended as, nor should it be construed as, exhaustive of all responsibilities, skills, efforts, or working conditions with this job.

This and all TRL positions are subject to transfer, based on library need.

Reasonable accommodation may be made to enable qualified individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions of this job. Timberland Regional Library is also an Equal Opportunity Employer.