

Patron Experiences Advisor

DEPARTMENT:	Public Services
GRADE:	71
CLASS CODE:	LSADV
FLSA STATUS:	Exempt
UNION STATUS:	Non-Represented
DATE:	created September 2025

Summary:

The Patron Experiences Advisor advises the Library Services Director on ways to improve customer service for patrons in TRL. This role is responsible for training staff on how to provide excellent customer service within TRL by doing the following:

- Create, maintain, and train frontline staff on a comprehensive Customer Service at TRL training program.
- Onboard new employees and train current employees in customer service expectations, including creating a welcoming environment, using professional communication, ensuring staff have the tools they need to provide the best customer service in our five counties.
- Assess and provide feedback to staff and supervisors related to customer service within TRL.
- Communicate with patrons and stakeholders, in a variety of formats and meetings, to identify needs and improvements that can be made. Review and report back to leadership on progress as needed or required.
- Grow and develop staff skills and resiliency in working with the public.

The Patron Experiences Advisor is responsible for creating a consistently welcoming environment and to uniformly train Public Services frontline staff. The Advisor will research, recommend, advise, and implement changes to the program and will conduct patron and stakeholder surveys, community outreach, and other methods as needed to inform training and communication for improved experience.

Work Location: This is a Hybrid Remote position with the expectation for both in-office and remote work from home. The employer will outline specific days or times when employees are expected to be on-site, or travel throughout the five-county district to attend events, meetings, or programs. Expectations for communications and collaboration will be outlined in a Hybrid Remote Work Agreement. Required equipment or tools will be provided by the employer.

Reporting Relationships:

The Patron Experiences Advisor is a subject matter expert who may provide direction to staff and work as a bridge between departments, employees, and daily functions. This position is supervised and reports to the Library Services Director as part of a service-oriented team.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities:

Class specifications are intended to provide a descriptive list illustrative of the range of duties performed by employees in the class. The omission of specific duties does not exclude them from the position if the work is similar, related or a logical assignment to the position.

1. Review, identify, research, recommend, and lead customer service initiatives.
2. Review, research, and advise leadership on current staff customer service levels; identify gaps in service or knowledge.
3. Prepare, propose, plan, and implement recommendations to improve the overall daily experience for patrons.
4. Work closely with Human Resources Employee Experience Advisor and Training Workgroup to develop and lead a signature TRL customer service program.
5. Develop, coordinate, and implement customer service training for frontline staff. May work with Employee Experience Advisor on staff day trainings, activities, presentations, and soliciting feedback.
6. Collaborate with leadership to create and sustain a positive information channel to provide accurate information regarding organizational vision, change, or direction.
7. Ensure implementation and understanding of new and revised policies, procedures, programs, and systems.
8. Assist in the development and implementation of Public Services strategic planning and departmental goals and objectives. Serves on applicable committees as a representative of Public Services.
9. May serve as interim Regional Manager or Library Supervisor as needed.
10. Responsible for building and sustaining positive relationships with employees, Administration, Union, and stakeholders.

Core Skills and Qualities:

Employees are expected to demonstrate the following qualities at all times:

1. Demonstrate quality customer service.
2. Ability to successfully collaborate and communicate with many individuals at various levels within the organization.

3. Exhibit reliability and dependability. Demonstrate punctuality and regular and consistent attendance.
4. Demonstrate a positive attitude and flexibility.
5. Work well with others, show respect, contribute to the team.
6. Demonstrate TRL values of service, integrity, collaboration, and community focus.
7. Demonstrate leadership.
8. Establish and maintain effective working relationships with internal staff.

Required Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities:

Employees are expected to perform or possess the following:

1. Demonstrate strong planning and/or project management skills.
2. High emotional intelligence with a commitment to working with a diverse staff and the ability to apply an equity and inclusion lens to internal processes and procedures.
3. Strong ability to work effectively in a team environment.
4. Ability to work with limited supervision and judge appropriately when to decide, when to seek guidance, and when to communicate decisions to others.
5. Ability to exercise sound judgement to comprehend policies and procedures with the goal to become a subject matter expert in staff development in customer service.
6. Working knowledge of best practices for customer service and service to employees.
7. Skillful in fostering and maintaining a pleasant and productive working atmosphere.
8. Ability to learn the principles and practices of Public Services.
9. Committed to Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion.

Technology Requirements:

- Microsoft Office Suite skills (e.g., Outlook, Word, Teams, and SharePoint) to satisfactorily complete job responsibilities.

Desired:

- Strong experience in customer service, project management, or working with people, teams is preferred.
- Strong skills to develop, grow, and guide entry-level staff by identifying career goals and future development opportunities.
- Effective communication style with the ability to have difficult/crucial conversations with Administration, supervisors, and staff.
- A willingness to learn new skills, processes, through training and shadowing.
- Effective time management skills, including the ability to multitask, manage multiple projects at the same time, and adapt to the changing priorities to meet needs.

- Proven reliability and dependability.
- Demonstrated skill in fostering trust and responsiveness.
- People impact mindset.
- Strong research skills.

Education and Experience:

Bachelor's degree OR any combination of education and experience which would provide the required knowledge and skills for successful performance of the job, will be considered.

Licenses, Certifications, and Special Requirements:

- A valid Washington State Driver's License.
- Must pass and maintain a criminal background check (per RCW 43.43).

Physical and Environmental Conditions:

- Work is performed in a busy service-oriented office with frequent interruptions and under the stress of continual pressure to meet deadlines and handle competing priorities Subject to sitting, standing, walking, bending, reaching and occasionally lifting objects up to 40 pounds.
- Occasional travel is required to attend meetings at other sites and locations, or to participate in work-related assignments.
- May occasionally be exposed to potentially angry and/or unreceptive staff or members of the public.

The above job description is not intended as, nor should it be construed as, exhaustive of all responsibilities, skills, efforts, or working conditions with this job.

This and all TRL positions are subject to transfer, based on library need.

Reasonable accommodation may be made to enable qualified individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions of this job. Timberland Regional Library is also an Equal Opportunity Employer.